

Overblouses of Printed Silk

are the mode of the hour—
here are some delightful ones

Special at 3.95

Hip-band overblouses, these are, for fashion decides that they best bestow the finished look of a frock. With long sleeves, too, a feature that one appreciates this time of year.

Fashioned of lovely printed silks in tasteful designs reminiscent of Egyptian and Chinese designs. In a host of colorings. Sizes 34 to 46.

Silky Corduroy Robes

—that greet the breakfast table
in cheerful mood—

Special, 11.50

These corduroy robes should put one in a pleasant frame of mind, for they are pleasantly warm if one must rise while it's chilly, and pleasantly colored, as well.

Their only trimming is the cross-stitching on collar and sleeve bands, assisted by two tassels. In orchid, fuchsia, Copenhagen, henna and rose.

Eiderdown Robes

Special, 9.75

Soft as down are these fleecy robes, with collar and cuffs of quilted satin to provide their trimming. In rose, Copenhagen, gray, tan and wistaria.

Women's Riding Habits

—designed for winter wear—

55.00

Their weight rather limits them to winter or chilly spring days, but their excellent styling is not limited at all, so smart are they.

In English box models, well tailored in imported oxford Melton or tan and gray tweed, lined with silk serge, the sleeves lined with white silk, the breeches reinforced with suede.

Most Unusual Values Are These

Coats and Wraps

for Women

at 68.00

The most recent of winter models, designed for street and dress wear. Included are cleverly draped wraps, wrappy coats, and bloused or straight line coats in a wide range of variations.

Fabrics are fashona, panvelaine, sonora, and Minerva, beautifully trimmed with Viatka or gray squirrel, beaver, wolf or black caracul, or all of self material, if one prefers. Lined with silk or crepe. Regular and extra sizes.

Exceedingly Smart Are These

Wraps and Coats

for Women

at 85.00

The models in this collection derive most of their charm from recent importations, and display panels, drapes, wrappy effects, slightly fitted lines and the youthful bloused back.

Developed in lustrosa, gerona, panvelaine, fashona and other velvety fabrics, with the further luxury of collars and cuffs of natural fitch, kit fox, skunk, wolf and black caracul; others with collars of beaver squirrel. The tailoring is irreproachable—the linings of colorful silks or crepe. Regular and extra sizes.

Exquisite Paris Frocks

—for dinner and formal evening wear—
in a special presentation Monday

at 37.50, 45.00 and 59.75

Frocks lovely enough to grace any occasion, however important a function it may be—for in each is reflected chic in styling, tastefulness in adornment, and brilliancy in color—each thoroughly French.

The silks are crepe de Chine and Georgette crepe of the firm, lustrous weave that seems confined to France. The frocks come with short or three-quarter sleeves, or no sleeves at all—gorgeously beaded in crystal, silver-lined or colored beads. In coral, jade, white, flame or black for evening. In black, navy, brown, gray or beige for dinner wear. Sizes 34 to 42.

Modish Top Coats

for Misses

that serve the out-of-doors with practical smartness—in a most comprehensive collection

at 25.00, 39.50 and 49.75

The Coats at 25.00 are of checked, plaided and solid color plaid back coatings, with raglan or set-in sleeves, novel convertible collars of self fabric and are silk lined throughout.

The Coats at 39.50 choose plaid back fleeces, manish checks and plaids as well as solid color fleeces—smartly collared with self material or raccoon.

The Coats at 49.75 are of genuine camel's hair, Scotch plaid back fleece, English plaid coatings and solid color fleeces overlaid with self silk stitching. Some are simply tailored, others have collars of beaver. Sizes 14 to 20 years.

Metal Trimmed Dance Frocks

For Misses

at 39.50

Frocks that dance in the night, as these do, are invariably accompanied by metal lace. Each of these lovely frocks is an accurate copy of a late importation.

One is of soft chiffon with the entire bodice and the ends of the long flowing panels of silver lace. The other is of crepe de jour with sprightly gold lace showing underneath the bodice and on the irregular panels. In lovely dance shades of rouge, jade, king's blue, flame and black. Sizes 14 to 20.
